May 13 and June 10, 2016 - Outdoor Pistol Match, 90 record shots in 3 ea 30 shot NMC courses of fire (Slow-fire, Timed-fire, Rapid fire). These matches will be fired on the Outdoor Pistol Range with all shooting done at 25 yds. The Slow-fire Target, B-16 will be used at 25 yds. This is a reduced range target from the normal 50 yd. B-6 Target. Timed Fire and Rapid fire will be shot on the normal B-8 target. Pistols allowed: revolver or semi auto. Sights: metallic sights, scopes or electronic dot sights (no laser sights). Caliber .22 thru .45 ACP. Ideally, one NMC course will be fired with the .22 cal pistol and the 2nd with a Center fire but this is not a requirement. A 5 minute sight-in period will precede the 1st NMC course. No other sight-in periods will be allowed. Scoring: competitors will score on the line - passing their score cards right or left. All NRA conventional pistol rules will be followed. Fees: Entry fee for the Pistol match will be $7.00. Awards - bragging rights.

With the reduced distance for the slow-fire stage most .22 pistols are a variety of center fire pistols from match grade 45s to 9mm Glocks can compete. Firing position is standing using only the strong hand.
